

A RESOLUTION to proclaim February 21, 1995, "Junior League Day" in Tennessee.

WHEREAS, the citizens of our state benefit daily from the efforts of dedicated volunteers and generous civic organizations; and

WHEREAS, these volunteers and organizations contribute significantly to the betterment of our communities by unselfishly devoting their time and energy to numerous worthy causes; and

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Tennessee is one such charitable organization comprised of women committed to promoting voluntarism and problem solving in communities across our state; and

WHEREAS, the community Junior Leagues reach out to thousands of women who demonstrate an interest in and commitment to voluntarism; and

WHEREAS, across our state, the Junior Leagues bring together 4,300 women, who volunteer over 64,000 hours each year and contribute more than $500,000 to their communities annually; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Junior League work together to ensure that women, children, and their families have opportunities and services essential for optimal physical, intellectual, mental, and social growth; and

WHEREAS, included in their efforts is the State Public Affairs Committee, a committee dedicated to issues facing children and families such as domestic violence, aging, education, environment, substance abuse, adolescent pregnancy, and health and well-being; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this body proclaim a day to honor the women of Tennessee's Junior Leagues, who give generously and unreservedly to their respected communities and community agencies; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That this General Assembly recognize the great accomplishments of the Junior Leagues and their great importance to our communities by proclaiming February 21, 1995, as "Junior League Day" in the state of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this body support and encourage the activities and contributions of the members of the Junior Leagues in our state, as these women are leaders in and assets to our society.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with the final resolving clause deleted.
